THREE years ago by suggestion Foreign Mission Board accidentally planned a rally for November on Bible day. This was to some extent getting on the Publishing Board's territory. Secretary Jordan called the attention of the Board to it and at once sent an abology and the mistake corrected But to our surprise last week there appeared an announcement in the National Baptist Union to the el lect that the Publishing Board was going to issue an Easter pro gram ne or exercise for the very day that the Foreign Mission Ward has been observing for the past several years to raise special off-rings for Foreign Missions. This is a missake and should be corrected at once, for while no intentional wrong was intended, it is absolutely sure that it will work great injury to the Foreign Mission work and probaby, prevent the paying of the salaries to the mis-sionaries in foreign fields as has been the custom at this season of the year.

For eight years this day has been especially set apart for Foreign Missions and now that the people ere understanding it and helping support the missionaries, it will do no good for another Board to select that day for another cause and di vert the attention of the few schools and churches, that are just taking hold of the Foreign mission work. Besides this it is the oldest of all of our organized departments and while Negro Baptists are not doing all they should for Foreign Missions, they will surely not ap prove a movement knowingly that may wrong our missionaries, thousands of miles away.
